

of Westminster from the operation of the water system of said municipality.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That the said The Mayor and Common Council of Westminster, before issuing any bonds hereunder, shall first, at a special or regular municipal election, submit to the voters of Westminster the question whether or not said bonds shall be issued, and upon the ballots to be used at said election, there shall be printed or written the words, "For Westminster City Water Bonds," and "Against Westminster City Water Bonds," and if a majority of the votes cast upon said question shall be "For Westminster City Water Bonds," then the said The Mayor and Common Council of Westminster shall exercise the powers vested in them by this Act and shall issue the bonds authorized by this Act; but if a majority of the votes cast upon said question shall be, "Against Westminster City Water Bonds," the power shall not be exercised, nor the bonds issued, but the said The Mayor and Common Council of Westminster, however, are hereby authorized to submit the same question to the qualified voters of the City of Westminster at the next general election held in said City, or at any special election to be called by publication of a notice thereof in a newspaper published or circulated in said City, at least once before the date fixed therefor, which date of publication shall not be less than fifteen (15) days nor more than thirty (30) days preceding the date fixed for said special election. All such elections shall be held as are other elections of the City of Westminster, and at such elections the qualified voters of the City shall determine whether or not the provisions of this Act shall become effective, and such provision shall not become effective until they are approved by receiving a majority of the votes cast upon said question, and the said The Mayor and Common Council of Westminster may call a special election for submitting the said question to the qualified voters of said City whenever and so often as in their judgment they shall deem best, and they shall so submit the question or shall call a special election whenever and so often as it shall be petitioned to do so by at least fifty qualified voters of said City, provided, however, that after the submission of said question to a vote under the provisions of this Section, another or other election submitting said question shall not be called or held within six months (6 mos.) from the last election on said question.
